Civil Application No.108 of 2005.
in
FAMILY COURT APPEAL NO.55 OF 2005

Mrs. Shilpa D. Ursal ..Applicant.

Versus

Dhananjay V Ursal ..Respondent

Mr.Nitin Gangal for the applicant
Mr.Nitin Deshpande for the respondent

CORAM: S.B.MHASE &
S.R.SATHE, JJ.

DATE : 18th July, 2005

P.C.

1. Heard Mr.Gangal, learned Counsel for the Appellant wife. By this application the Appellant has prayed that the decree of dissolution of marriage be stayed. Further it is prayed that the amount of interim alimony fixed at the rate of Rs.15,000/- per month be enhanced to Rs.1,50,000/- per month. However, Mr. Gangal, after arguing the matter for some time submitted that the Appellant is ready to accept Rs.15,000/- as interim alimony during the pendency of this appeal. The learned Counsel for the Respondent submitted that he has no objection to pay the amount of Rs.15,000/- by way of interim alimonry since it was granted during the pendency of the application before the Family Court after having contested before the High Court. Therefore, we pass the following order:

ORDER

1. The decree of dissolution of marriage is stayed till final disposal of the appeal.

2. The interim alimony during the pendency of this appeal is directed to be paid by the Respondent husband at the rate of Rs.15,000/- per month. The claim of enhancing the alimony is hereby rejected.

3. The Respondent shall pay the arrears of maintenance from the date of the Appeal. The Respondent to pay the monthly alimony regularly on or before 10th of every month in the Bank account of the Appellant wife. The Appellant wife to furnish the account number to the Appellant husband. All the arrears from the date of filing of appeal till this date shall be deposited within six weeks from today and accordingly the learned counsel makes statement that it will be paid.

4. Application is accordingly disposed of.
